

Python 2 Homework (Due May 9)

Tkinter is a useful package for gui styling.

The Homework is to finish the Calculator app that we will have started in class.

Create buttons for the calculator and line them up in the right grid spots.

Also work on getting the Employee homework from last week to function properly with the properties.